DECORATING & FURNISHING ORGANIZER

If you and your family are like 99.9% of the population, you are already planning to change the color palette in some if not most rooms in your new home. That simple change may set off a chain reaction that translates into big time spending for decorating and furnishings basic, including carpet, upholstery/slip covers, window treatments and accessories. Take time to plan… to budget… and to prioritize your decorating and furnishing purchases, and then keep a record of all that you bought… and where.
